THE FARMERS' CONGRESS.

Discussing the Distributive Side of Agriculture.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Sept. 24.—The farmers' national congress considered several questions affecting the distributive side of agriculture. Most of the time of the congress will be given to the distributive problems, as the farmers consider that they have solved nearly all the productive questions and that national assistance should now be invoked to aid American farmers in finding a market rather than helping them grow products.

James Wood of Mount Kisco, N. Y., delivered an address on "How We Can Enlarge Our Foreign Markets For Farm Products." To help a bigger market, he said, an increased merchant marine should be held, and by following these lines American farm products will find foreign markets easily.

Aaron Jones, master of the national grange, addressed the congress on the "Extension of the Facilities of Our Mail System." He favored the immediate expansion of rural free delivery and the readjustment of the parcels post system. Mr. Jones also advocated a government telegraph and telephone service. An extended debate followed.

Germany's Drink Bill.

Berlin, Sept. 24.—The statistics of the imperial health office show that the total spent on alcoholic liquors in 1902 throughout the German empire was about $225,000,000, an average per head for persons over fifteen years of age of $35. The health office has issued a pamphlet in which, while not advocating total abstinence, it says total abstinence is not disadvantageous to health and does not impair the working ability. A mass of material is arranged for popular understanding, showing the injurious effects of alcohol.

Cacao Palms.

Cacao palms are used to give coffee shrubs the shade they require. Their crop is almost equally profitable.
